```
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------
                              PACKET LOSS TESTING
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------

                  ------------------------------------------------------
                  1.Enter 1 to enter website name
                  2.enter 2 for ip address
                  ------------------------------------------------------
                  Enter any option 1 or 2: 2
                  ------------------------------------------------------

                  Enter IP address: 192.168.11.10

--------------------------------------------------------------------------------
                     Default values for count is 10 and size is 32
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------

                  Enter 1 to change default values.Enter 2 to proceed with default values : 1

                  ------------------------------------------------------

                  Enter the count: 15

                  Enter the size: 32

                  1.Enter 1 to save resuts.
                  2.Enter 2 if don't want to save results: 1
```

Packet loss testing

```
Hostname :  192.168.11.10
Packets sent :  15 packets
Packets received :  5 packets
Packets lost :  10 packets
Packet Loss percentage :  66.66666666666667 %
Connection : Bad connection and high packet loss

Number of Packets that took more than 300 ms : 15

Percentage of Number of Packets that took more than 300 ms : 100.0%

--------------------------------------------------------------------------------
                      PACKET LOSS TESTING COMPLETED SUCCESSFULLY
--------------------------------------------------------------------------------
```

If internet connection has been lost and we chose Ip address input and count and size are given by user then saved.